

Working with Immigrant and Refugee Women and Sexual Violence

About this course

In this self-paced course you will learn about how immigrant and refugee women have distinct experiences of sexual violence, and the barriers they may face in accessing resources or supports. This course was developed in collaboration with Ontario Council of Agencies Serving Immigrants

You will learn

1. How immigrant and refugee women's experiences of sexual violence as well as of accessing support is impacted by their immigration status
2. How to apply an understanding of intersectionality to working with immigrant and refugee women
3. How individual, institutional and systemic barriers impact immigrant and refugee women

After completion you will be able to

1. Understand and appreciate the diversity of immigrant and refugee experiences
2. Unpack myths regarding immigrant and refugee women's experiences of sexual violence and harassment
3. Develop an understanding of barriers that immigrant and refugee women face
4. Gain strategies and tools for your own work

How do I register?

To gain access to this course, please register with the Training Hub to set up your free account by visiting training.oaith.ca.

This module was created in collaboration with the Ontario Council of Agencies Serving Immigrants \(OCASI\)

