

NEW ONLINE FEATURES IN 2016

Updated Training Portal and Learning Management System

- Join a community of 1,500 learners from across Ontario to gain access to online courses, videos and webinars on topics related to gender-based violence
- Access courses on a wide-range of topics focused on competency-based learning
- Earn badges of completion as you learn and gain new skills

New Online Library Database

- Access Resources including documents and videos in one location on a range of topics and sub-topics related to gender-based violence
- Suggest A Resource that you want added to our online library for inclusion. This is a community-driven resource for advocates and service providers, employers, policy makers and students with an interest in ending gender-based violence

Job Posting Service

- Job Seekers can now view VAW and Social Justice related job through our news feed, while also getting connected to our Training Portal and Library to prepare them for work in organizations addressing gender-based violence and social justice.
- Employers who have upcoming job opportunities addressing gender-based violence and social justice only need to email us their posting and we will ensure the posting is up on our job feed with mentions on social media. OAITH will be providing this service for free until June 2017! Simply send your job posting to jobs@oait.ca

Social Media and News

- Stay Connected through our news and social media feeds
- Get access to up-to-date information on issues related to gender-based violence
- Follow Us on facebook and twitter
- Join our community of learners, advocates and members

To learn more about these updates please check out our website:

www.oait.ca

Funded By:

